Dear Ms. Lewis,

On behalf of California Attorney General Xavier Becerra, thank you very much for the invitation to attend Senator Kamala Harris's town hall in Sacramento on April 5, 2018. Regrettably, after going through the logistics of his schedule, the Attorney General is disappointed that he is unable to accept your kind invitation as he is scheduled to be in another state on this day. As such, he sends his warmest regards and best wishes for a successful event.

I am grateful for your patience and understanding in this matter. I appreciate you keeping Attorney General Becerra in mind and ask that you please keep him in mind for any future events. As always, if we can be of future assistance, please contact our office at 916-210-6255.

Best regards,

Emily, Scheduling Director

Hello Sir,

We received the following request from Senator Harris's office for you to join her in her upcoming town hall this Thursday April 5th in Sacramento. You will be in New York City that day. I have already flagged your travel for her team and wanted to bring to your attention that we declined you. Please let me know if you want to call the Senator directly and regret.

Thank you,

Emily
